

For Immediate Release:

Bullseye Builders Ownership Acquires JG Companies

New acquisition will put enhanced focus on customer service, new construction technology and streamlined operations.

(June 1, 2022 - Chino, CA.) JG Service Company today announces that it has been purchased by the ownership team of Bullseye Builders, Inc. The acquisition will create JG Companies, which will consist of the JG Construction and JG Facilities divisions.

Established in 1979, the divisions that make up JG Companies have a strong reputation for construction and facilities excellence in southern and central California. The Construction division provides general contracting services and construction management for new construction, tenant improvements and multi-site rollout programs. The Facilities division specializes in facility maintenance, service calls, small project improvements and 24-hour emergency services. Both divisions service the retail, industrial and multi-family residential sectors.

“This acquisition signals a bright future for JG Companies,” said Adam Shihadeh, owner of Bullseye Builders, Inc. “We are driven by our core values and the simple love of building great projects that positively enhance local communities. Putting clients at the forefront of our business has always been a major focus, and our entire team lives this out every day by treating each project as their own. We are proud of the legacy of the JG brand, and will look to build upon such through the use of the innovative construction technology, modernized operations and ongoing customer service excellence.”

About JG Companies

Since 1979, JG Companies has been a premium provider of construction and facilities services in southern and central California. The business consists of two divisions: JG Construction and JG Facilities, both of which service the retail, industrial, corporate, food service and multi-family residential sectors.

Media Contact:

Wally Clark, Executive Vice President
(909) 224-6215 | wallyc@jg-companies.com

#####